

Mrs. Tammarrah Addison

Tammarrah Hewing- Addison is a native of Reed, Arkansas population 395 (well, now 394 since she left). After graduating from high school, she joined the US Navy and spent 4-1/2 years defending Americans' rights. Upon completion of her enlistment, she was accepted to San Diego State University, San Diego, California where she majored in Theatre with an emphasis in performance. In California, she lived out her dreams of being an actress. Some of you might have seen her in Reunion the Movie which was based on the director's life in Hot Springs, Arkansas. Tammarrah has always wanted to impact lives through the arts so she chose to start educating the youth. She enrolled at Azusa Pacific University in Azusa, California where she graduated with her Masters in Education and the certifications to teach Theatre, English, Speech and Journalism.

Her commitment to her craft and students inspired her to continue her training, so she earned a Masters in Theatre Education from Regent University in Virginia Beach, Virginia. She is an active director who has directed over 20 shows from a straight play like "Flowers for Algernon" or a musical "Once on this Island". She has directed plays in California, Virginia and Tokyo, Japan. She now has her own business called Dramatic Expressions, LLC. Her sole purpose is to educate through the arts, giving a platform for those who want to express themselves dramatically. She also gives trainings to businesses on soft skills and teamwork, educational principles in the classroom to school districts.

This symposium was birthed out of the will to please God and empower women utilizing skills that was given to her. She believes that being an Unbossed Unapologetic Superwoman is about networking and empowering of all women no matter the age or occupation. Women should not downplay the skills they were birth with. They have to learn with a Mastermind group how to nurture them and live out their wildest dreams. There is only one above us all and that is GOD. Trust in him, do your work and watch the blessings flow. Position yourself with like minds and move towards your destiny. Just don't stop moving. She wants to thank everyone who have helped to bring this idea to fruition. All twelve Mastermind Speakers who signed on to be a beacon of light for others. Each one of you are now connected to her-just don't call her collect... Special shout out to Shealine Burks who told her about "The Slight Edge"- You changed my life. Love and kisses to Florida Rose-Hunt for birthing me and being the first Unbossed. Unapologetic Woman she has seen. I love you Mama. Now let's go be Unbossed. Unapologetic. Superwomen!
