

RUBY GRAHAM-EMERSON

Mrs. Graham-Emerson earned her Master's degree in Education from Purdue University in Calumet, IN. As of right now, she is attending Oral Roberts University in Tulsa, OK. She has completed written and oral examinations. She has less than a few classes to finish her Doctoral Degree in Christian Education ABD.

She is currently the Executive Director of the McGehee Desha Alumni Community Center, Inc where she has served for the last seven years. She has designed, developed, and coordinated training and intervention program for students and instructors. She is also well versed in educational/career development, counseling, motivating and training staff in team building.

Mrs. Graham-Emerson has marketed features and benefits regarding higher education and attending special programs at traditional universities. She has discussed the pros and cons with students interested in attending non-traditional, junior, and technical college. Skilled in cultivating on-going relationships with local businesses for part-time and full-time employment of students. Rubye encouraged student wellness via physical fitness, healthy nutrition, and personal development via entrepreneur leadership seminars.

She has worked at the University of Monticello at Monticello as an Educational Specialist/ Counselor in Student Support Services. Yet before that career, she worked as a Career Pathway Coordinator at the University of Monticello at Crossett in Crossett, Arkansas. She believes that the kids are our future and wants to help as many people as possible to financially secure the future for them.